

Commencement 2008

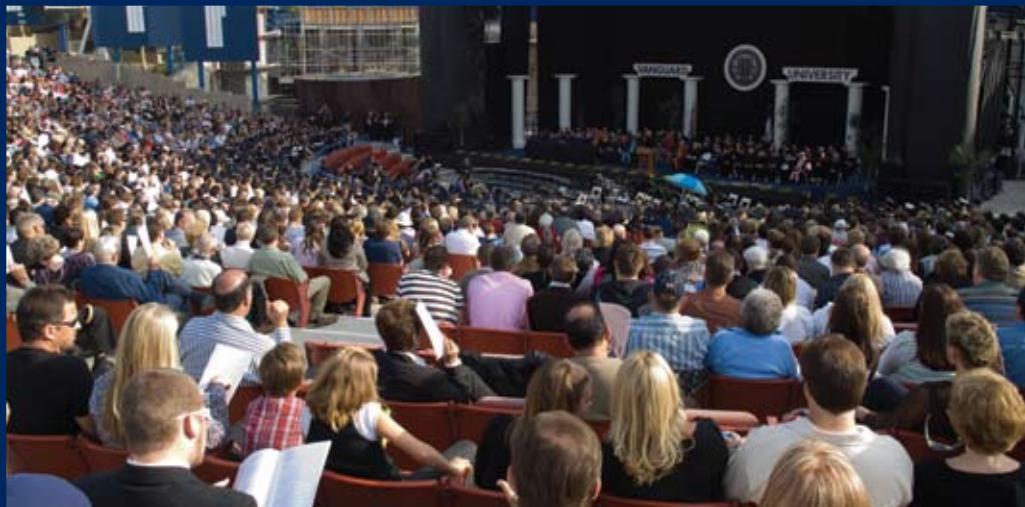

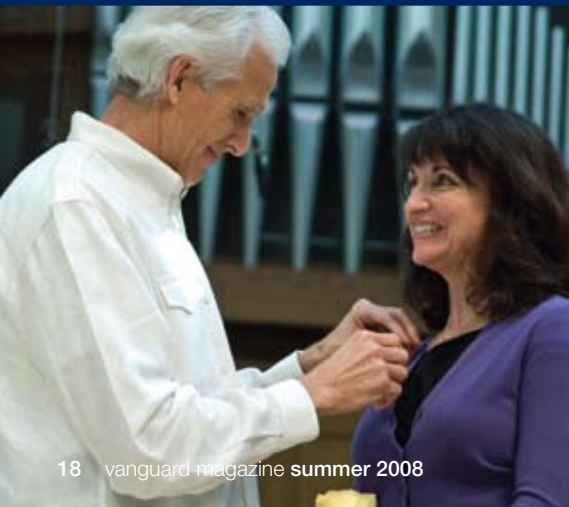

“Vanguard operates under the banner of Truth, Virtue and Service, and the class of 2008 has truly represented this slogan. Because of our experiences at Vanguard, we are academically, socially and spiritually prepared for the next steps. I challenge you with this: Take the gifts God has given you and share those gifts with the world around you!”

-Undergraduate student speaker Meghan Drummond

“The commitment on the part of the professors in the SPS program is extraordinary. Every one of our professors made an effort to ensure that we were given the assistance needed to thrive in their classroom. We are well prepared to meet all that awaits us after graduation. It is our duty to God, and to society, and to ourselves, to make the most of these abundant opportunities.”

-SPS student speaker Glee Harris

“When you follow Jesus you do a noble thing, and 45 years after my college commencement I can say, He takes you places you never dreamed you could go, gives you friends you can’t get rid of and don’t want to, gives you ideas beyond your experience, value beyond belief and a world to bless. Vanguard University, class of 2008, have at it!”

-Commencement speaker Dick Foth
